What is the change?

To support financial adviser service fee flexibility, we are introducing a Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee effective 1 September 2021 in the ANZ OneAnswer products listed in the table above.

An Adviser Service Fee is an agreed deduction between yourself and your financial adviser for financial advice and related services about your super, pension or investment account/s.

What does the change mean?

In addition to an Ongoing Adviser Service Fee and a One-off Adviser Service Fee, the ANZ OneAnswer products listed above also offer the flexibility of a Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee for personal financial advice.

A Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee may be charged for a period of 12 months or less, as a percentage of your account balance or as a set dollar amount per annum. This fee will be calculated on the date it is deducted from your account on, or about, the date of the month that your account commenced, on a monthly basis.

You can terminate a Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee at any time by notifying us in writing.

Depending on the advice you receive, you may agree with your adviser to pay:

- a Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee, or
- an Ongoing Adviser Service Fee, or
- a One-off Adviser Service Fee, or
- a Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee and a One-off Adviser Service Fee, or
- an Ongoing Adviser Service Fee and a One-off Adviser Service Fee.

A Fixed Term Arrangement Adviser Service Fee and an Ongoing Adviser Service Fee cannot be deducted from an account at the same time.
